Letter No. 2769 of 29/5/03, from the Rev. Commr., forwarding for favorable consideration, an application from Mr. G. Aravamuda Iengar, Asst. Commr., for a head-quarter allowance.

Mr. Aravamudiengar bases his claim for a head-quarter allowance on the follg grounds:-

(1). By his temporary transfer to Bangalore, for duty under the Rev. Commr., he has had to incur heavier expenses on account of hiring house-rent & the maintenance of a separate establishment for travelling.

(2). His travelling arrangts have to be more elaborate and costly than those of an Asst. Commr. on district work, as he has to adjust his movements to those of the Rev. Commr.

(3). He has to keep two horses for riding & driving and a dog-cart, besides a covered carriage & a bicycle for use at H.Q.rs.

(4). Whereas Govt have refused* to defray more than the charges of taking a single horse by rail, while accompanying the Rev. Commr on tour, his travelling allowances are only an intermittent and fitful source of income, falling far short of the actual expense of his camp establishment.

For precedents, Mr Aravamudeyangar refers to the case× of Mr. M. Shama Rao, who, even as an Asst. Commr doing duty in the Dewan's office, and prior to his appointment as Assistant Secretary) was given a local allowance of Rs 50 per mensem, as also to the cases of Messrs A. Krishnaswamieyangar, K. P. Puttanna Chetty and K. Chandy, who drew allowances while working outside the Secretariat.

×C.

Late Mr Krishnaswamieyangar's case:— He was Asst. to the I. G. of Police who was also the I. G. of Forests. The recommendation for a local allce of Rs 50 was based on the ground of extra work & sanctioned on the condition that the charge be met from the Police & Forest Budgets in equal proportion. On a further recommendation, the allowance was raised× to Rs 100.

⊗ Mr K. P. Puttanna Chetty's case:— The local allce of Rs 50 was for Forest work, whereas he was attached to the I. G. P. (as above).

Mr Chandy, while yet a Probr Asst Commr, was appointed acting Asst Secy & was granted an allowance of 20 p.c. of Rs 300, i.e. Rs 60 and it was directed that this allce should continue until he is confirmed as an Asst. Commr, When his pay as Asst Secy will be Rs 50 more than the pay of his grade.

By para 5 of G. O. (camp) No. 109, dt 1/6/95, "the local allowances attached to offices stationed at Bangalore & Mysore are also abolished, subject to the proviso that individual officers who have hitherto enjoyed enjoyed them will, as a temporary arrangement, continue to enjoy them till they are promoted or transferred."

6/8/03

There is a great deal in the case to deserve favorable consideration. The other Assistants who are similarly attached to Provincial Officers may however fairly claim similar treatment. These are the Assistants of the I.G. of Police and the Excise Commissioner. Submitted for orders.

The case deserves the very favor-able consideration of Government. Precedents are not wanting for local allowances having been granted to officers similarly situated. Mr. Shama Rao's case is a recent instance and I understand that he was granted a local allowance of Rs. 50 a month with retrospective effect even prior to his appointment as Assistant Secretary. Though the G.O. Camp No. 109 dated Mysore, 1st June 1895 abolishing the local allowances attached to the officers stationed at Bangalore and Mysore is couched in general terms, it appears from the context to have been mainly intended for applica-tion to the Secretariat officers and in view of the fact that even the recent appointments to the secretariat are taken to carry with them, as a matter of course, a local allowance of Rs. 50, I do not see how a similar treatment can well be denied to other officers similarly situated.

This is an error

Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar's claims for a generous treatment are even greater than those of Assistant Commissioners working in the Secre-tariat either as Assistant Secretaries or other-wise as, unlike the latter, he has to keep an elaborate and costly travelling establishment, and he may be granted an allowance of at least Rs. 50 a month in common with the others.

If however the Government are not prepared to grant any local allowance in the face of the order of 1st June 1895, a permanent month-ly travelling allowance (Art. 543, M.S.Regns.) on a sufficiently liberal scale may perhaps meet the exigencies of the case. Rs. 120 a month appears to me to be the lowest amount which can well be fixed, and, under the circumstances, I do not think it will be considered too generous.

In either case I think it neces-sary that Mr. Aravamudu Iyengar should be per-mitted under Art. 518 A, Clause (2) to take by railway a carriage and two horses. I am aware that the question was considered and the request de-clined by Government. As the matter is again touched upon by Mr. Aravamudiengar in his letter now before Government, I wish to point out that, to be thoroughly useful to me in my tours, he will have to take with him a couple of horses and a carriage. He will then keep up with me during my marches and be always ready for work. I would therefore recommend the question for the reconsi-deration of Government.

Circulate again for the opinions of the Councillors.

On second thoughts, I did not think it worth while, to consult Mr. Madia in this matter.

It may be pointed out, however, that Assistants to Commissioners in Bombay, who spend all the cold weather and most of the hot, on tour in Districts with the Commissioners, get only a tentage allowance of Rs15, and a permanent travelling allowance of Rs100 per mensem, while our Assistant Commissioners whose tours are confined to short and rapid trips into the Districts, ~~draw~~ their travelling allowances under the rules, tents and carriages being taken at the expense of Government.

To the Revenue Commissioner newly created has been assigned a substantial portion of the work which was being done by the Revenue Debt of the Secretariat. To his Assistant therefore, I would extend the same treatment as that accorded to the Assistant Commissioners attached to the Secretariat. This seems quite fair - In other words, the Revenue Commissioner's Assistant may be given a local allowance of Rs 50 a month - He is more than a mere Clerk - Assistant like the Assistant attached to the Dy Inspr of Police, the Excise Commr and the Dy Dir of Education - I would fix his case [illegible] a local allowance & fixed travelling allowance - When he travels he may draw the allowances admissible to Asst Commrs -

In the case of a Provincial Clerk like him a Cycle horse would not be sufficient - Permission to ride by rail a-casionally & two horses may be given as obtains for

I do not understand this demand. He is not a Secretary. The New Commissioner is Head of the Office - & is not in the provincial service.

In the absence of some such inducement as above the office of Assistant to the Revenue Commr would come to be regarded as an undesirable one by our Assistant Comrs - There must be something to compensate the Revenue Comrs Asst for the extra cost necessitated by his transfer from District work.

I do not know what our Asst Comrs are drawing & travelling allowances & how does any alteration affect it.

H Greenway

I agree with Mr Greenway. Regarding the Dewan's remarks I thought we were not to call in the analogy of Bombay & other British provinces & presidencies but proceed on independent lines limited to the Condition and requirements of Mysore.

What are the conditions peculiar to Mysore? & why are Asst Comrs alone to get any allowance and why should any be given in this office unless it is that a false comparison is made with the Secretariat as the Commr has done in his note.

Submitted to His Highness.

We only can plead in favour of the proposal to grant a local allowance to this Agent when new Court is that Agent Secretariat to get an allowance - The analogy is quite incomplete as the new Court's Agent is more like Agents attached to the Offices of the Inspector General of Police & State Court - than a Secretariat Officer - If this circumstance is waived neither the practice in Mysore nor that of Bombay supports the claim - There are no Authorities to warrant this increase of expenditure or what this Agent Court in a special manner with regard to his travelling allowances -

OFFICE OF THE REV. COMR. IN MYSORE,

Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith for the favorable consideration of Government copy of letter No. B dated 19th May 1903 from Mr. G. Aravamudiengar, Assistant Commissioner working under me requesting the grant to him of a headquarter allowance under the conditions of his work at a costly headquarter station.

I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant,

Aravamudiengar

SVK

Bangalore,

No. B. 19th May 1903.

From

G Aravamudiengar Esq.

Assistant Commissioner doing duty with the Revenue Commissioner.

To.

V.P. Madhava Rao Esq. C.I.E.

Revenue' Commissioner in Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so kind as to support my claim for a headquarter allowance under the following circumstances.

2 I was an Assistant Commissioner employed on district Executive work till September last when under Government Proceedings No. 924-5 dated 27th August 1902 I was temporarily posted to Bangalore for duty under the Revenue Commissioner. From the experience of the last eight months I find that I have on the one hand to incur a much heavier expense on account of living and house-rent and on the other, owing to the temporary character of my deputation and to my generally accompanying the Revenue Commissioner on his tours, to maintain a separate establishment for travelling. As I must adjust my movements to those of the Revenue Commissioner my arrangements for travelling have, from the nature of the case to be more elaborate and costly than those of an Assistant Commissioner employed on ordinary district work. Thus I find it absolutely necessary to keep two horses for riding and driving and a dog-cart, not to speak of a covered carriage and a Bicycle for moving about while at headquarters. The Government however have in their Proceedings No. 12261 P & A 1099, dated 23rd February 1903 declined to defray more than the charges of taking a single horse by rail, while accompanying the Revenue Commissioner on tour. At the same time, the travelling allowances that I find it possible to draw at present are, owing to the occasional nature of my journeys, omly an intermittent and fitful source of income and fall far short of what is necessary necessary to meet the actual expenses of my Camp establishment .

3 Assistant Commissioners employed in the Secretariat have, all along, been permitted to draw an allowance of Rs 50/- a month, and this, even though they are not appointed Assistant Secretaries. Thus Mr M. Shama Rao, M.A., was granted this allowance with retrospective effect for the period prior to his appointment as an Assistant Secretary, and while he was only an Assistant Commissioner temporarily deputed for work in the Dewan's office (Vide Government Proceedings No. 12956-7/ mis 3419 dated 1st April 1901 and No. 8824/ R 3175 dated 4th May 1901.) I may also refer to the cases of Messrs A. Krishnaswamiengar, K.P. Puttanna Chety and K. Chandy, who drew allowances while working in an office other than that of Government.

4 I venture to believe that the circumstances which rendered the grant of a headquarter allowance desirable and proper in these and similar instances are not absent in my own case, and that my exceptional position both as an Assistant Commissioner working at a costly headquarter station and as an officer permanently belonging to the executive line and ever liable to be asked to revert to district work (and bound to be ready therefor) but even during his temporary deputation expected to keep up a costly travelling establishment deserves special consideration at the hands of Government.

5 In the absence of a headquarter allowance on a scale sufficient to cover the increased expenses of both kinds alluded to, or in the alternative, of a smaller local allowance plus the permission to take two horses and a dog-cart by rail when accompanying the Revenue Commissioner on tour, I cannot but suffer pecuniarily in my present appointment, a result which the Government in its solicitude for the welfare of its officers will, it is hoped, be pleased to obviate.

I have &c.

Signed/ G Aravamudiengar.

Assistant Commissioner.
